PARISH OFFICE AND ADORATION
CLOSURE

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

It is so hard to believe that we are coming down to the end of our liturgical year. Our readings today are asking us to think about our lives as to where we are and what are we doing with them. In other words, we are encouraged to look at the quality of our lives as Christians especially in our thoughts, words and actions.

In today's gospel, Jesus makes a good point; sitting on our hands will get us nowhere, get nothing done, and help nobody else. So often when I administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to our young people, I tell them that faith is not just a word, but rather it's an action. We are called to put our faith, what we believe into the action of our lives. To some extent that means taking risks. The couch potato, who just sits around waiting for life to happen for them, is going to wait a long time.

Of course, we know that there are good risks and bad risks in life. What is necessary is that we choose our risks carefully. The slave in today's gospel, who buried his one talent, chose not to take any risks. So often when we stop growing and learning, we become less and less willing to take risk failures. Like the slave, we become lazy and just don't care. Learning something new can be a risk, because when we discover new things about the things around us, about others and even about ourselves, it is then we are forced to see things differently and to act differently as well. We all have our own particular talents. Talents are our abilities to use well our education, our resources, and our personality in taking the risk to expression in action the genuine gift of our faith.

Maybe sometime this week as we prepare for Thanksgiving, let take some time to think about what my life is all about, what talents I have been blessed with and not have used? May God grant us the grace of self-knowledge to seek wisdom and courage to follow the path of growth in taking risks so that our faith can grow stronger and stronger each day.

Our Thanksgiving Day Mass will be at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday. We invite all our parishioners to come and join us as a family gathering around the table of the Lord to give thanks for the many blessings we have been given as a parish family.

Our Knights of Columbus are sponsoring "Breakfast with Santa" on Sunday, December 3rd in Father Brennan Hall. Come enjoy a delicious breakfast and at the same time have your children's or family picture taken with Santa.

Don't forget Sunday, December 10th, at 2:00 p.m., we will have a private showing of the Star of Bethlehem at the Ocean County College Planetarium. Reservations can be made by calling Terry Damiano, 732-269-2208, ext. 120.

On Tuesday, December 5th at 7:00 p.m., we will have our annual Advent Evening Prayer Service. It's a great opportunity to get away from all the distractions of gift wrapping, tree decorating, card writing and to just spend some time in prayer, preparing spiritually for the true meaning of Christmas.

Our Rectory Office will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 23 & 24th in observance of the Thanksgiving Holiday. The rectory office will reopen again on Monday, November 26th at 9:00 a.m.

On behalf of the entire staff of St. Barnabas, we want to wish all our parishioners, friends and benefactors of the parish a wonderful and Happy Thanksgiving.

Have a safe and most enjoyable weekend: we'll see you in Church.....
