May They Rest In Peace

Concetta Fiorello

The Nativity of John the Baptist

Dear Parish Family:

A jetliner was roaring down the runway when, just before takeoff, the pilot reversed engines, slammed on the brakes, and taxied back to the gate. Then it just sat there for more than an hour before finally taking off. A nervous passenger asked the flight attendant what had happened, “Well,” she explained, “the pilot was really worried by a noise he heard in the engine and it took us all this time to find another pilot.” A surprise but not a happy one!

It’s hard to imagine the surprise that the parents of John the Baptist felt when they discovered Elizabeth was pregnant. They were old, really old! And childless! And suddenly there was a baby. Their lives were transformed and they never would have dreamed it possible.

God still has lots of surprise, even for the oldest among us, gifts and blessings we’ve not yet even imagine. Many of them are already on the way. But will we receive them? Will we ever notice when they arrive on our doorstep? We may, and then again we may not. It all depends on what we’ve decided to value, what we’ve decided is worth noticing, and what’s not.

God never runs out of surprises. For those who know how to see and how to love, every day will be full of them. Then God’s best surprise will just fall into our hands, because we knew how to see and how to love.

God sends us wonderful gifts. Today, we gather to give thanks to God for the beautiful gift of our parish administrator, Barbara Dudek. God’s gift of Barbara’s talents, initiatives, her dedication to our parish not only as an employee, but as a parishioner helped to make over these 22+ years of dedicated service our parish what it is today. Now, God is gifting her with well-deserved time to enjoy her family, friends and parishioners each day. Thank you Barbara for being a gift to all of us over these years, and let our friendships continue to be gifts to one another in the days and months ahead. God speed!!!

Thought for the week: “St. John the Baptist would say, “He must increase, but I must decrease.” How appropriate as the days of sunlight are getting soon shorter and then at Christmas, the days of sunlight begin to increase. A little scriptural lesson!

Have a great week; we’ll see you in Church.....

Fr. Stas’

*This week the Sanctuary
Candle
burns in memory of ...*

Helen Dudek for the weekend of June 30 – July 1, 2018 in the Church at the request of the Geri Delnero.

Dates for the Sanctuary Candle and the Bread, Wine and Flower Donation are still available. Offering for the Sanctuary Candle is $10 and the Bread, Wine, and Flower Donation is $50. Please call the Parish Office at extension 100 for more information.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Adults: Zecariah was afraid when the angel told him his prayers would be answered. Has having a prayer answered ever unnerved you?

Children: In the first reading, God tells Jeremiah that we are never too young to help God with his work. How do you feel about that?

MISSION STATEMENT
ST. BARNABAS PARISH

BELIEVING, BELONGING, BECOMING

We are a diverse, active community, rooted in the love of Christ. We recognize who we are and all that we have comes from God.

In gratitude we respond in prayer, service, and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. Through the sacraments, we are committed to evangelization, learning, teaching, and proclaiming God's Word to His people.

The St. Barnabas Parish Stewardship Prayer:

Generous God,

We give thanks to you for the gifts you have given us, our lives, families, friends, time, talent, and material possessions. All that we have comes from you. Help us to remember this and rejoice in your goodness.

Walk with us, Lord. Help us on our spiritual journey, so that we may constantly renew our relationship with you as a community in our believing, belonging and becoming.

Give us the strength and courage to become better followers and disciples of Jesus, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.
