

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Adults: Paul tells us that no matter how close to Christ we are, or how far away, we all have access to the same Spirit. Does being either close or far change how you might feel about this statement?

Children: Even though Jesus really wanted to be alone, he taught the people because he could see how much they needed him. Have you ever put aside what you wanted to help someone else? Would you?