

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Adults: St. James calls us to be “doers of the Word”, and take care of each other, “unstained by the world”. How are you working toward this goal?

Children: Jesus talks, in the gospel, about people who seem to follow all the rules, but are mean and nasty to others. Do you need to work at being less like that? What can you do to start?