

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Adults: The second reading instructs us that, because they come from the same God, the same Spirit, we must accept and share whatever gifts God has bestowed on us. Also, we must not be jealous of another's gifts. If you struggle with that, how can you work on following what Paul teaches?

Children: St. Paul tells us that all gifts are good because they all are different but come from the same God. How do you feel when someone else has a gift you'd like to have? How can you find and share your gift?
